Sir:
The corrected application for passport of Rudolf Hennig is herely transmitted, the error was mine in transposing the figures 7 and 5. I reviewed the application and he stated that he had been in this country seven years having come here in 1885. By accident I wrote that he came in 1887 and that he had been in this country 5 years, which is not according to fact.

Dear Sir —

We fail to see how we are in any way responsible as regards the loss of the $2.00 sent last April by Alice G. Patten and Alice Winslow for passports — We acted exactly according to your directions and then received word that our money failed to reach you although you received our application enclosed in the same envelope. If your clerks are dishonest, as is very evident, we beg leave to enquire who if called upon make good to any transacting business with them —

the loss arising from that dishonesty?

Enclosed you will also find a postal-note — and I have requested the postmaster here in Watertown to make a minute of the number of the note, if there there is anything wrong, we can inform the clerk receiving this of the number and also testify that there were witnesses present when the said note was enclosed.

We would humbly beg leave to suggest that our "noble" government find some method of conducting such matters as will ensure safety
